1954 CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S CAMPAIGN

1. The 1954 Crippled Children's Campaign in the Central Intelligence Agency will begin on 5 April and end on 16 April 1954.
2. This campaign is sponsored locally by the D. C. Society for Crippled Children, an affiliate of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. This organization furnishes free treatment and training to hundreds of children in the Washington, D. C. area who are afflicted with cerebral palsy. The Society is supported wholly by voluntary contributions, and Agency employees are urged to contribute.
3. Contributions may be placed in special envelopes which will be distributed throughout the Agency by Administrative Officers. The Services Branch, Employee Services Division, Office of Personnel, has been designated to receive and forward all donations to the Society headquarters.
